REVEREND'S REMARKS

The sound of laughter is contagious. When we share laughter it brings us together and increases joy and happiness. In addition, laughter creates a healthy change in the body by releasing endorphins— the body's feel good chemical. Humor and laughter can protect us from the damaging effects of stress giving us energy and strengthening for our immune system.

The Bible says, "A cheerful heart is good medicine, but a crushed spirit dries up the bones" Proverbs 17:22. This scripture is in contrast between a cheerful heart and a broken spirit. A broken spirit focuses on the negative. Rather than being refreshed by your presence, people will walk away discouraged.

Do you know someone who you always want to be around, someone with a cheerful heart, that someone who lifts you up just by being with them? Well, the prescription for a cheerful heart is laughter. Laughter is good medicine. This priceless medicine is fun and easy to use.

We were created so we might have joy, and that joy comes from embracing a relationship with our Lord. Once we have the joy of our Lord we can be that someone people want to be around. We can bring a healing through laughter because the joy of our Lord becomes our strength, and that's contagious.

Pastor Mark

CUMC MEMBER UPDATE

As many of you know, Lee Dye has been in Georgia with his son since before Christmas due to the fact that he needed a double knee replacement. It has been a long and sometimes frustrating road to recovery for Mr. Dye. While he was originally due home in early June, his recovery has not proceeded as everyone had hoped. It now appears as though he will not return to Centreville until early fall.

I know he is terribly missing all of his friends and church family back home, and I also know that it incredibly brightens his day when he receives any contact from us. Please, if you have a moment or two of spare time, consider sending him a card or even giving him a quick call at the rehabilitation center where he will be staying for the near future. I know it means the world to him. It would also be a wonderful way to reach out and let him know that we are still missing him, and he is in our thoughts and prayers.

I have both a contact phone number and address for him. Please just give me a call and I will be happy to share that information with you. Thanks for reaching out.

SERVICE EVANGELISM

What is Service Evangelism? We are all a part of the Evangelism Team! Each one of us can reach out to others as Christ would have to help those we see in need. Keep your eyes open for those who seem lonely, who are constantly sitting or standing around town without a place to go, those in church who are new, or anyone anywhere you can help.

When you help others by showing you care in even the most simple way, you are a service evangelist. Let's all be more giving to others as we follow and spread the word and love of Christ.
